

PRESENTATION OF WUWHS 2012 CONGRESS

ASAN Medical Center, Seoul (South Korea)
Thursday September 9th, 2010

WORLD UNION
OF
WOUND HEALING SOCIETIES

Better Care, Better Life

10.00am - 1.30pm

Welcome by Prof Kiyonori Harii, the President of WUWHS 2012 and
Dr. Sadanori Akita, Secretary General of WUWHS 2012 and President-Elect of WUWHS

Presentation on WUWHS 2012, Yokohama, September 2-6, 2012

- 1• To promote truly advanced wound care in daily practice by gaining greater understanding of novel wound healing theories
- 2• To evaluate the cost-effectiveness of wound care through understanding reimbursement systems
- 3• To enhance friendship among international representatives from various nations, embracing both modern technology as well as traditional regional medical practices
- 4• To advocate the importance of wound care for lay persons in terms of safety, cost-effectiveness and long-term outcomes
- 5• To take "Expertise, Experience and Evidence" from the research laboratory to the bedside
- 6• To promote modern wound care throughout Asian countries
- 7• To support developing countries worldwide

THE PROGRAM, THE STREAMS, GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

- Yokohama 2012, Better Care Better Life
- Collaborations worldwide
- Program, Streams and Stream Captains
- Overview and structure of the program
- Financial support (and other sponsorship opportunities)

1.30pm - 2.30pm: Lunch

www.wuwhs2012.com

Register for this meeting: www.mfcongres.com
For more information contact: marianne.kemmer@wuwhs.org